

Dr. Jitjayang Yamabhai

Telephone number: +662 800 2308 ext -3305

E-mail: jitjayang@yahoo.com

Biography

Dr. Jitjayang Yamabhai is a lecturer in the MA Cultural Studies Programme at RILCA. His research background is in ethnic community and rural development. He has also extended his work into museum management and entrepreneurship.

Research Interests

- Ethnic people and rural development
- Community Studies
- Community capacity building

Selected Publications

Cusripituck, P. and Yamabhai, J. (2015). "A Critical Reflection on Pedantic Approach to Community-based Art Learning in Urban Context". Journal of Asian Critical Education, 3, 29-41.

Burusphat, S. Ardsmiti, N., Suraratdecha, S., Yamabhai, J. (2014). "Ethnic Tourism Development in Thailand: The Case Study of the Black Tai". The Journal of Laos Studies, 5(1), 108-125. การสอน

Cusripituck, P. and Yamabhai, J. (2018) Bangkok Folk Museum: A Museum that makes Bangkok a human city. In CAMOC Museums of Cities Review: ICOM International Council of Museums 01/2018 p.32-34 ISSN 2520-2472, www.camoc.icom.museum

Cusripituck, P. and Yamabhai, J. (2017). [proceeding] "Creating Transformative Collectors for Heritage sustainability: Experience from Black Tai Villages in Phetchaburi Province, Thailand" Committee for Education and Cultural Action (ICOM CECA), Museums and Cultural Landscape, Milano, July 3-9 2016.

Cusripituck, P. and Yamabhai, J. (2017). Museums and Cultural Landscapes Ceca Activities Beyond the Museums Walls. Edited by Cinzia Angelini Università Roma Tre: ICOM

International Committee for Education and Cultural Action (ICOM CECA) ICOM
International Council of Museums. P.43-47.

Teaching

- LCCS 513 Seminar on Contemporary Social and Cultural Issues
- LCCS 515 Research Design in Cultural Studies
- LCCS 514 Practicum
- LCCS 577 Community-based Innovation Development
- LCCS 580 Cultural Entrepreneurship and Sufficiency Economy Philosophy
- LCCS 583 Design Thinking and Service Design in Social Entrepreneurship

Expertise and Public Engagement

- Dr. Jitjayang Yamabhai has worked on various community developmental projects including
- 2007: Education strategy for Thai hill tribe development
 - 2005: The Study of Community Plan building
 - 2004: The Study of Teacher shortage in Canada
 - 2004: The PAR on Community Network Support Program in Sakeaw Province, Thailand
 - 2002: The Survey Study of the Use of Under Water of Peasant in Middle Region of Thailand
 - 2001: The Community Database
 - 1999: Comparative study of community saving groups: the case study of Sungnuen district
Nakhonratchasima province